SCHOOL MOTTO

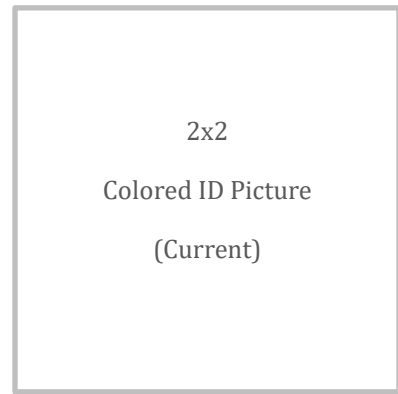

I choose to lead!

CORE VALUES

1. RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD. To bring students in maturity in dealing with themselves and can determine God’s path and direction where they best can bring glory to Him. As they grow spiritually they begin to understand their part in the learning/growth interaction and life challenges take place.
2. HOME ENVIRONMENT. RHSLI works in partnership with parents or guardians in education, yet the final responsibility for the child’s academic and spiritual development is at home. Home environment is important in training young people in a Christian environment for time and eternity. Parents are biblically mandated as the first teachers of their children as illustrated in Deut. 6:7-9; Eph. 6:4; Acts 5:42; Prov. 4:1. The school staffs works closely with parents to train the whole child.
3. STEWARDSHIP. All resources (time, talent, treasure, and technology) are to be utilized effectively, efficiently, and excellently. Striving for the highest personal achievement in all areas of learning and giving recognition to students achieving high standards, setting and meeting excellent quality.
4. LEADERSHIP. Developing character strengths and abilities that shape who you are both as a leader and a person based on biblical leadership principles as displayed in the life of Jesus.
5. INTEGRITY. To display behaviors that will reflect sincerity, honesty and being trustworthy and to reward these behaviors appropriately.
